Houloyd's Ear of Focus

Wondrous Item, common

This ear helps you filter background noise and focus on a single voice or other source as if it were the only audible sound and removes any penalties to Wisdom (Perception) checks due to background noise. It does not amplify the noise. If only worn in one ear, you must cover the other ear to get the benefits. While focusing on that sound, you have disadvantage on all passive Wisdom (Perception) checks. You can turn this function on or off with a bonus action.

When a user chews this gum, it numbs the mouth, eliminating tooth and mouth pain, but the numbness makes talking difficult, causing disadvantage on social Charisma checks, and spells with a verbal component require a successful DC 8 Dexterity check to cast successfully. Medicinal Herbal Treatments

While most fantasy settings use herbal medicine implicitly, it has more of a stigma in much of the real world, especially cannabis. We chose to include the suggested magic hookah as an opportunity to address the stigma associated with the medicinal use of cannabis.

Often more commonly known as medical marijuana, when used responsibly, it can often help relieve chronic pain, insomnia, depression, anxiety, PTSD, multiple sclerosis, and other conditions more effectively and with less side effects and addictive potential than prescription opioids and other modern pharmaceuticals. But like modern pharmaceuticals, it has side effects which users need to consider before driving or performing other activities requiring concentration, just as a PC needs to plan accordingly, and an unexpected need for mental clarity may be problematic in both real and fantasy worlds.

The stigma prevents many people from benefiting from cannabis's medicinal effects, so we encourage those with concerns to research the topic and communicate with their health care providers. Note also that this stigma can lead to people not being able to access medical marijuana whether it be lack of funds to pay or providers who don't believe in its use.

We recognize that some wish to use this book in educational settings with specific policies regarding depictions of drug use, so we emphasize responsible lawful use of all substances, and where policies or discretion requires omission of certain sections of this book, we trust those responsible to manage this content in your setting. We also provide a Players Edition that does not include the magic item lists, which alleviates this tension in those settings and makes the purchase of multiple copies for students or clients more affordable.

This item includes a hookah, a serving tray, and the hookah's associated accessories, such as coals, tongs, and hoses. The tray, magically bonded to the hookah, will follow its owner, floating alongside, behind, or ahead, as ordered. The hookah is always clean, full of cold water, and ready for use. A new coal can be ignited with a command word, and if missing, another coal and tongs will appear with a command word. If the coal is removed, it instantly cools. Once you use the hookah, it will magically clean itself and prepare for another use. When you smoke the appropriate herb, oil, or incense through the hookah, it gives +2 to all saving throws against the target mental trait or pain you experience for 1d6 hours. The correct substance(s), always nonmagical, may be determined by succeeding on a DC 10 Intelligence (Arcana) check followed by succeeding on a DC 15 Wisdom (Survival) check for every hour spent searching in an appropriate location for the needed materials. Smoking through the hookah takes 10 minutes. The hookah can only be used once every 12 hours. While affected by the hookah, you also experience 1d6 of the following: Heightened Emotions, Baseless Emotions, Hallucinations, Delusions, Eating Disruption (Binge Eating), Personality Difference. (Roll on the Impact Extent table for each.)

Hein Ye's Band of Omnivision

November 18, 2022

Wondrous Item, rare

This gold headband, set all around with agates, enables you to see in all directions at once, regardless which direction your eyes point. This gives advantage on all Wisdom (Perception) saving throws but limits depth perception, giving disadvantage on hit on all ranged attack rolls. If you use your action to Dash while wearing this, you must succeed on a DC 12 Constitution saving throw or take Dizziness (IE 1, cumulative), until you remove the headband and spend 1 round per IE prone or take a short rest.

Heaven's Clockwork Heart

Wondrous Item, uncommon

This heart-shaped amulet with a winding key has 3 charges. While holding it to your chest and using an action to wind the key, you can expend 1 charge for the following properties.

Assistive Heartbeat. The amulet sends a magic signal to your heart that lasts for 1 day to compensate for Organ Failure, Heart Palpitations, or other heart-related conditions. This stops any form of deterioration in condition for 1 day and gives you +2 on all related saving throws. This function lasts a full day as long as the amulet remains within 1 foot of your chest.

Heart Goes Out. You use your action to touch a living creature, and you take 1d4 necrotic damage, which can't be reduced in any way, and the creature that you touch regains a number of hit points equal to twice the necrotic damage you take.

Give Me Your Heart. You use your action to touch a willing living creature. The creature that you touch takes 2d4 necrotic damage, which can't be reduced in any way, and you gain a number of temporary hit points equal to half the necrotic damage.

Heatherynn's Spellbook

Speaking

November 18, 2022

Wondrous Item, common

This wizard spellbook records spells verbally and can speak them back to the caster, eliminating inscription and preparation penalties, but it speaks at a normal conversation level, and the volume cannot be adjusted, ruining any stealth possibilities. The book can also speak the verbal components to the spell if the caster is unable to speak.
