Gaining Advantage 021: When a Foam Sword Heals

September 16, 2022

What does accessibility look like in Live Action Role-Play (LARP)? We welcome Kitty Rodé from the Golden Feather Initiative to talk about that!

Kitty Rodé is a queer, South Asian artist and organizer who is passionate about storytelling, community building and traumainformed gaming. They are a lifelong student of anti-oppression work, creating safer spaces and design for social change. Kitty is also a member of the Community Resistance Intimacy Project (CRIP) Collective, providing disability justice education and training. Visit kittyrode.com to see more of their work.

- 0:00 Introduction
- 4:36 Interview: Kitty Rodé, Golden Feather Initiative
- 36:05 Wrap-up

Manually captioned. Transcript available at our website.

Golden Feather Initiative Links

• Folks can connect with Golden Feather Initiative on Twitter at ogoldenfeatheri and on Facebook and Instagram

Wyrmworks Publishing

- Limitless Heroics: http://inclusiverpg.com
- The Lair: https://cutt.ly/LairYT
- Limitless Champions: http://mini.inclusiverpg.com
- Wyrmworks Publishing: http://wyrmworkspublishing.com
- Facebook: https://facebook.com/wyrmworkspublishing
- Twitter: https://twitter.com/wyrmworksdale

And here's the video Kitty references: