Spellcasting. Lechlun is a 6th-level spellcaster. His spellcasting ability is Intelligence (spell save DC 14, +6 to hit with spell attacks). Lechlun has the following wizard spells prepared:

Cantrips (at will): Chill Touch, Dark Shape, Mage Hand, Prestidigitation

1st level (4 slots): Disguise Self, Mage Armor, Nullified Senses, Protection from Evil and Good

2nd level (3 slots): Darkness, Invisibility, Untouchable Minion

3rd level (3 slots): Sphere of Annihilation, Touch Oblivion

Arcane Recovery. Once per day when Lechlun finishes a short rest, he can choose expended spell slots to recover up to a combined level of 3.

Forced Oblivion. Starting at 6th level, Lechlun's mastery of Oblivion manipulation allows him to cast Counterspell and Dispel Magic each once per long rest as a bonus action or reaction at 3rd level without expending spell slots.

Traits

Diverse Face Shape [IE 2]. Lechlun's face draws immediate attention. His features aren't within the range of shapes typical of his ancestry. These include underdeveloped cheekbones and jaw, eyes that slant downward, sparse eyelashes, and a notch in the lower eyelids. Consequently, when people who don't know him see him, they usually only see his face. This gives him +2 to Dexterity (Sleight of Hand) checks but -2 to Disguise checks or Dexterity (Stealth) checks to blend into a crowd, as well as a -2 penalty on Charisma (Persuasion) checks due to the discomfort many people experience around those with unexpected appearances.

Actions

Dagger. Melee or Ranged Weapon Attack: +6 to hit, reach 5 ft. or range 20/60 ft., one target. Hit: 5 (1d4 + 3) piercing damage.

Background

Lechlun's parents are wealthy jewelers. Growing up, Lechlun enjoyed watching them craft uncut stones into works of art, polishing them until he could see himself in them. He especially enjoyed playing with their store of obsidian. As Lechlun grew, his parents noted his intellect and creativity and enrolled him in a school of magic. Despite rejection by his peers due to his uncommon appearance, Lechlun excelled at his studies, and the more he learned, the more his curiosity led him to ask questions that other students had never thought of. He began to explore new angles of magic in his lonely spare time, and eventually found a way to access and harness Oblivion, the primal force of annihilation. His teachers, who knew little about this energy but feared it, warned Lechlun to return to more familiar arcane traditions, but his curiosity could not be stifled, which led to his expulsion.

Lechlun continued his studies and research independently, financing his work by working in his parents' shop and using his magic to obliterate objects that can't be burned or eliminated with other methods of disposal.

Personality

Lechlun is "a friend to those who want to be friends with me." He has little use for individuals or societal structures that value the status quo over progress and is quick to dispose of anything he deems unnecessary. He resonates with those who struggle to fit into society for any reason, especially because of their appearance, and he values new art forms, food, and other unique experiences. Lechlun occasionally goes adventuring for the sake of the new experience.

Plot Hooks

- A noble has a rare object that needs to be completely eradicated and has hired Lechlun to do the job, but Lechlun suspects that the object is important and asks the party to come with him to investigate.

- A magic object is wreaking havoc on the environment, and Lechlun asks the party to help find and destroy it.
- Lechlun is looking for a rare tome that will help him unlock more magical secrets. It's believed that a dangerous creature guards it, so he asks the party to help him recover it.

Abilities

Cunning Action. Their quick thinking and agility allow them to move and act quickly. They can take a bonus action on each of their turns in combat. This action can be used only to take the Dash, Disengage, or Hide action.

Fast Hands. They can use the bonus action granted by their Cunning Action to make a Dexterity (Sleight of Hand) check, use their thieves' tools to disarm a trap or open a lock, or take the Use an Object action.

Second-Story Work. They can climb faster than normal; climbing no longer costs them extra movement. In addition, when they make a running jump, the distance they cover increases by a number of feet equal to their Dexterity modifier.

Sneak Attack. They know how to strike subtly and exploit a foe's distraction. Once per turn, they can deal an extra 5d6 damage to one creature they hit with an attack if they have advantage on the attack roll. The attack must use a finesse or a ranged weapon. They don't need advantage on the attack roll if another enemy of the target is within 5 feet of it, that enemy isn't incapacitated, and they don't have disadvantage on the attack roll.

Supreme Sneak. They have advantage on a Dexterity (Stealth) check if they move no more than half their speed on the same turn.

Uncanny Dodge. When an attacker that they can see hits them with an attack, they can use their reaction to halve the

Any round Aderyn uses their legs, must make a DC 16 Constitution saving throw or experience one level of exhaustion, cumulative each round of exertion requiring 5d20 x 4 per level of exhaustion rounds to recover afterward. They have a +4 bonus to saving throws against psychic damage.

Leg Weakness [IE 1, Periodic]. Movement speed reduced by 25 percent without assistance. Consider the Strength attribute to be 3 less for all Strength checks involving leg strength. Every round spent standing requires a successful DC 9 Constitution check, the DC increasing by +1 each round. Failure results in immediately needing to sit or be prone.

Phobia (Acrophobia/Arachnophobia/Trypanophobia) [IE 1, Triggered]. When within 10 ft. of the phobic stimuli Aderyn, must make a DC 9 Wisdom check or have a -1 penalty to all Intelligence, Wisdom, and Charisma ability checks.

When attempting to or unable to stim, Aderyn must make a DC 6 Constitution check to fight the urge each round with the DC increasing by 3 each round until the stimming behavior is engaged in. Failure to resist results in a -3 penalty to all ability checks until their stimming needs are met.

Sensory Processing Difference (Over-Responsivity/Auditory) [IE 4, Chronic]. When the stimulus is present, Aderyn must make a DC 12 Constitution check or act to avoid the stimulus however possible. This can make them seem insensitive as they miss sarcasm, avoid eye contact, take expressions literally, or don't attend to the subject as neurotypical people would expect, or they tend to repeat phrases spoken to them as they process them. They have a -3 penalty on Charisma (Persuasion) and Charisma (Deception) and Wisdom (Insight) checks. They can use Masking to mitigate these effects.

Lower Body Stiffness [IE 2, Periodic]. Their hips and knees are difficult or impossible to move without extreme pain. They have a -2 penalty on any action that would use those joints, including attack rolls. Their daily walking distance is reduced by 40 percent.

Such a blanket can be made from two large animal pelts for a medium humanoid or two medium animal pelts for a small humanoid plus enough sand to make the total weight 10 percent of your body weight.*

Wheelchair. Wheelchairs eliminate the movement penalty and add 50 percent to your dash movement unless on rough terrain, but many actions such as jumping are impossible while sitting in a typical wheelchair.

Background

Born under a new moon to an elven landowner father and a human craftswoman mother, Aderyn was unwanted. Their early life, living with their mother and younger half-brother, was spent in school or pestering their older friends to teach them to fight. At 12, their mother disappeared, leaving their younger brother to relatives and leaving Aderyn to their father. Their father reluctantly acknowledged Aderyn, providing them with a place to live, but the hostility of the rest of the household prompted them to follow their older elven half-sister's path and leave, at fifteen years old. From then on until they reached adulthood, Aderyn drifted between house-shares in big cities, making temporary friendships and developing their skills.

As their resentment of authority grew, they trained themselves in freerunning, trespassing, and map drawing, using their skills to fight against tyranny and oppression. They were often found flying through the city in their wheelchair, hopping from one roof to the next flanked on either side by their companions in chaos: a young raven named Feathers, whom they trained to distract guards, and a pseudodragon named Scales, who accompanies them on missions as an emotional support animal. They sold their services to a range of criminal clients, breaking into properties, scouting paths for thieves, and securing getaway routes.

Eventually, Aderyn's notoriety grew enough that they began being hired for other purposes, and now, at 24 years old, work in partnership with an adventuring priestess called Zora, providing the downtrodden with refuge and safe paths through an increasingly dangerous city.

Personality

Aderyn is always trying to do the right thing by people and works to befriend most people that they meet. However, they will not work with people who uphold systems of oppression and view anyone who does as an enemy. People in positions of power who abuse said power, are quick to taste Aderyn's justice and redistribution of wealth.

When entering new locations or situations, Aderyn is already looking for the fastest way in and out either to assure their own escape route or a potential break-in later with a client. However, even with well-laid plans, they are often the first to forget or even ignore the plan instead, opting for improvising on the spot. They do their best to listen though and will often use their Fidget Focus to support them in taking in the important details about each mission. Aderyn also prides themselves on always paying back their debts in one way or another. Oftentimes, this comes as money or helping a friend with a job, as long as it is in line with their ethics.

Plot Hooks

1. The party needs to break into a location and needs someone who knows how to get in and out easily.
2. The party runs into Aderyn as they are escaping from a recent break-in with a crew.
3. Aderyn is recruiting people at a local tavern or criminal hotspot for an upcoming break-in attempt.

Background

Donna grew up in a dwarven community that loved to chase after adventure. She has countless stories about all of the harrowing challenges she faced and all of the times that she could have been seriously injured or killed in the process. In fact, there is one story that sticks in her mind: the adventure that she went on alone, which ended in her needing a wheelchair for the rest of her life.

After that last injury, Donna thought it may be time to stop exploring and adventuring. The thought of her being at a disadvantage for being in a wheelchair had never crossed her mind. Donna was instead afraid of losing her loving partner, Michael. She was terrified that another dangerous adventure could mean that her life with him could be cut short. She could not imagine what life would be like without him. Adventuring was something that she loved, but she did not want to adventure again if it could mean losing him forever. Michael sweetly ensured her that he would never ask her to give up a passion like adventuring. Instead, the couple now goes on adventures together, happier than they have ever been.

Personality

Donna is bisexual and head over heels in love with her partner Michael. She has always been a thrill seeker since birth, and she would much rather use her brains than sit and debate topics any day. However, she is known to get into some serious discussions if she is passionate about the topic. Some people would say that Donna has trouble keeping still. Others know Donna to just be a ball full of energy and watching her express herself through her body is one way that she knows how to soothe herself. Donna also is a great communicator who seems to get along with everyone she comes into contact with. She has romantic tendencies which can come off to some people as slightly confusing. You will always see her personality shine as brilliant as a rainbow, which she will always stop and admire if she sees one.

Plot Hooks

1. You may find Donna and Michael in a tavern celebrating a grand adventure they just had.
 2. You may find the couple in an athletics tournament going on at the local town fair.
 3. Donna and Michael may request the adventuring parties' help in trying to explore a nearby location that is rumored to be filled with a lot of monsters. They would go in by themselves, but they know that there is safety in numbers.

Fatigue [IE 3, Chronic]. Veralynn is nearly always tired. After every long rest, she must succeed on a DC 15 Constitution saving throw or take 1 level of exhaustion during the duration, regardless of the amount of rest she gets. Along with this it takes her 60% longer to prepare spells, and every long rest, she needs to succeed on a DC 11 Constitution saving throw or experience insomnia and no benefits.

Intrusive Thoughts [IE 1, Chronic]. Veralynn has intrusive thoughts about whether or not people actually want to be her friend, that she is burdening others, and that she isn't as capable as she actually is. Due to this, she has a -1 penalty on saving throws against being frightened.

Pain (Chronic Pain) [IE 3, Chronic]. Veralynn experiences chronic pain throughout her body. Any action that requires a concentration check (e.g. maintaining a spell) requires a DC 13 Constitution saving throw per round to maintain concentration. Since she is used to managing pain, she has a +3 bonus to saving throws against psychic pain.

Assistive Devices

Veralynn's Countryside Conveyance

Wondrous Item, common

This wheelchair has wide wheels that enable it to move through wilderness areas with a 30 ft. speed, adjusted for terrain difficulty. While seated in it and speaking directional and speed command words, the chair will propel itself for up to 8 hours per day. The wheelchair regains its charge after a long rest.

Salve. A jar of salve costs 1 sp for seven days' worth and must be applied every 2 hours to receive the benefits. One hour after application, the Impact Extent of Chronic Pain reduces by 1 for 2 hours, continuing as long as applications continue. The benefits wear off after 2.5 hours if not reapplied.

Background

When Veralynn was younger she loved spending time in the forests being deeply immersed in nature and animals. Prior to becoming sick, she could go weeks without returning to a city. However, while out on one such adventure she was exposed to a virus that caused her body to experience chronic pain with flu-like symptoms. It took several years, seeing many healing folk, before Veralynn was able to name what was ailing her. During that time, she used her druidic skills to develop healing potions and salves that helped manage her symptoms. She was able to take the skills she learned and turn them towards opening a shop that sold her creations to help others like herself that struggled with various chronic ailments that traditional healing, both magical and non-magical, could not properly address. While this was not in her plans, Veralynn has grown to love the work and knowing that she is helping those around her. Wherever her shop is located, she is a hub for the community and well known in the town.

Personality

Veralynn is the “mom friend” of the group and is known for being caring towards those she is close to and even those she isn’t close to yet. She will remind people regularly to eat, drink water, and get enough rest. Being extroverted and friendly, it is only a matter of when, not if, someone will be friends with Veralynn. She is fiercely loyal and protective of her friends. However, under her extroverted personality, Veralynn does have her own struggles and does her best to not put them all on her friends. Due to this, she will hide when struggling with intense pain or fatigue. Veralynn also lacks confidence at times in her abilities and friendship. However, with reassurance and emotional support, she is able to work through these moments.

Plot Hooks

1. The party is searching for a cure for something that magic and non-magical items cannot seem to cure.
 2. A party member has an ailment or condition that needs special care or items to help manage.

Baseless Emotion (Panic/Nervousness) [Impact Extent 2, Triggered by crowds of medium or larger humanoids]. Rork struggles with feelings of anxiety. If he experiences more than four hours of intense anxiety, he will need to take a short rest or take one level of exhaustion due to the physical toll. In addition, all spells and ability checks require that Rork succeed on a concentration check or make the subsequent check with a -2 penalty, and tasks that normally require a concentration check are made with a -2 penalty.

Sensory Over-Responsivity [Impact Extent 3, Triggered by crowds of medium or larger humanoids]. Rork is highly sensitive to loud sounds (volume) and visual overwhelm. Due to this, any time he is faced with the opportunity to engage with these sensory experiences, Rork must pass a DC 11 Constitution check to stay engaged with the stimuli or spend 3 rounds attempting to avoid it. Each round he can continue to attempt to make the same Constitution check at a -3 penalty. If there is a barrier or a way to filter out the visual disturbance, Rork can make his Constitution saving throw with advantage. In addition, Rork has a +3 bonus to all Wisdom (Perception) checks to notice sounds and pick up on visual changes in the environment.

Background

Before choosing to live in the forest, Rork grew up in a large city, but he found it overwhelming and eventually could no longer tolerate the demands living there placed on him. After struggling to meet his own daily needs, Rork decided to leave his home for a more peaceful environment. Out of the city, Rork found he was able to enjoy life again for the first time in many years, surrounded by the relative quiet of the woods and soothing presence of the woodland creatures. Noticing the impact his new environment had on him, the little kobold decided to wrap up his affairs in the city and live a more secluded life in the woods.

Personality

Those who do not know Rork very well would call him blunt or rude since he is careful about how he spends his social energy, while those who have had the honor of getting to know him will realize that he is a very caring kobold that enjoys getting straight to the point. While his forest environment is quite calming, he can still become anxious, especially with new people, and when anxious he will fiddle with a loose wicker ball attached to a belt by a rope. The wicker ball is in fact a chain of small hoops that he can spin around or unfold at his pleasure, and the more Rork is stressed, the more he fiddles with the ball.

When Rork gets lonely, he will make the treks to small local villages. He will chat with some of the locals that he has grown familiar with and who have learned to accept Rork and his way of communicating. Villagers will also seek Rork out for guidance, as his straightforward way of speaking and – thanks to his insightfulness – ability to seemingly know things others wish to keep hidden, are very useful for gaining new perspectives on problems. Rork is happy to lend a hand, especially to anyone who is a friend to the animals or nature. However, Rork is quick to anger when anyone would dare threaten those things.

Unless there's a dire situation, Rork will avoid large cities or other loud and busy places as much as possible.

Plot Hooks

1. A local might direct the party to speak to Rork if struggling with getting to the truth of the matter about a person.
 2. The party becomes lost in the forest and needs aid leaving after getting turned about.
 3. The party runs into an overwhelmed Rork visiting a city and assists him in finding a peaceful place where he can ask them for assistance with his own quest.

Skills: Acrobatics +8, Athletics +10, Intimidation +5,

Perception +6, Survival +6

Senses: Passive Perception 16

Languages: Common, Dwarvish, Minotaur

Challenge: 15

Abilities

Rage. As a bonus action, he can enter a rage for up to 1 minute (10 rounds).

He gains advantage on Strength checks and saving throws (not attacks), +3 melee damage with Strength weapons, resistance to bludgeoning, piercing, slashing damage. He can't cast or concentrate on spells while raging.

His rage ends early if he is knocked unconscious or if his turn ends and he hasn't attacked a hostile creature since his last turn or taken damage since then. He can also end his rage as a bonus action.

Brutal Critical. He can roll two additional weapon damage dice when determining the extra damage for a critical hit with a melee attack.

Danger Sense. He has advantage on Dexterity saving throws against effects that he can see while not blinded, deafened, or incapacitated.

Feral Instinct. He has advantage on initiative rolls. Also, if he is surprised at the beginning of combat but not incapacitated, he can act normally on his first turn if he enters a rage before doing anything else.

Frenzy. While raging, he can choose to frenzy. He can make a single melee weapon attack as a bonus action on each of his turns after this one. When his rage ends, he suffers one level of exhaustion.

Goring Rush. Immediately after he uses the Dash action on his turn and moves at least 20 feet, he can make one melee attack with his horns as a bonus action.

Hammering Horns. Immediately after he hits a creature with a melee attack as part of the Attack action on his turn, he can use a bonus action to attempt to shove that target with his horns. The target must be no more than one size larger than him and within 5 feet of him. Unless it succeeds on a Strength saving throw (DC 18), he pushes it up to 10 feet away from him.

Intimidating Presence. He can frighten a creature that he can see within 30 ft. If it can see and hear him, it must succeed on a Wisdom saving throw (DC 13) or be frightened until the end of his next turn. He can use his action to extend the duration of this effect each turn unless it moves out of line of sight or more than 60 ft. away from him.

Labyrinthine Navigation. He can find the exit to any structure or maze by sensing air pressure changes and the echoing of his own hooves, which he can interpret to feel the direction of and most direct route to the nearest outlet.

Mindless Rage. He can't be charmed or frightened while raging.

Persistent Rage. His rage ends early only if he falls unconscious or if he chooses to end it.

Reckless Attack. When he makes his first attack on his turn, he can decide to attack recklessly, giving him advantage on melee weapon attack rolls using Strength during this turn, but attack rolls against him have advantage until his next turn.

Relentless Rage. If he drops to 0 hit points while he's raging and doesn't die, he can make a DC 10 Constitution saving throw.

If he succeeds, he drops to 1 hit point instead. The DC increases by 5 each time he uses this after the first, resetting to 10 after a short or long rest.

Retaliation. When he takes damage from a creature that is within 5 feet of him, he can use his reaction to make a melee weapon attack against that creature.

Actions

Extra Attack. He can attack twice, instead of once, whenever he takes the Attack action on his turn.

Greataxe. Melee Weapon Attack: +10 to hit, reach 5 ft., one target. Hit: 11 (1d12 + 5) slashing damage.

Horns. His horns are natural melee weapons, which he can use to make unarmed strikes. If he hits with them, he deals piercing damage equal to 1d6 + 5, instead of the bludgeoning damage normal for an unarmed strike.

Traits

Diverse Face Shape [IE 3]. Lanark's missing horn draws immediate attention. Due to its break, it isn't within the typical range of shapes of his ancestry. Consequently, when people who don't know them see Lanark, they usually only see his face with a missing horn. This gives him +3 to Dexterity (Sleight of Hand) rolls but -3 to any rolls involving disguise or stealth rolls to blend into a crowd as well as a -3 penalty on Charisma (Persuasion) checks due to many people's discomfort around those with unexpected appearances.

Phobia (Agoraphobia) [IE 1, Triggered]. Lanark's Labyrinthine Navigation makes him more comfortable in enclosed spaces where he has a better sense of the environment. The more open the space, the more uncomfortable he becomes. When in an open environment, he must succeed on a Wisdom saving throw each minute: DC 8 in a dense city or forest, DC 9 in an open village, DC 10 in an open plain. On failure, he must move away from the stimulus or have a -1 penalty on all Intelligence, Wisdom, and Charisma ability checks due to distraction.

Background

Lanark was imprisoned in a labyrinth as an executioner for the enemies of a terminally unimaginative Duke. Stumbling around near-blind in the dark, twisting passages eventually resulted in a bad fall and the loss of his horn. He resolved to make the labyrinth safer, both for himself and others. He put up a lot of torches, fluorescent mold on stairwells, and most importantly, lots and lots of safety fencing.

He began employing the Duke's victims in his quest to make his home safe and eventually amassed enough of an army to overpower the guards and escape. He was also able to capture the Duke as he continued to hone his strength and all his skills. The Duke has learned the error of his ways and has altered his life.

He still visits the labyrinth to check up on how the work's going and to keep the Duke in line, but you'll most often find him plumbing the deepest, most dangerous dungeons, disabling traps, and grumpily shouldering past bewildered monsters to place warning signs, most importantly the WARNING: BOTTOMLESS MAGIC PIT signs. He has also had many encounters with monsters that disguise themselves and does his best to warn any incoming adventurers. It has helped people's perception of this large Minotaur become a protective guard over the people around him.

Personality

Lanark gets equally angry when adventurers or dungeon denizens are placed in harm's way by sloppy construction. He would often share different safety facts about areas. One of his favorite examples would be: Did you know more kobolds are killed by falling stalactites every year than by adventuring parties and dragons combined? Many individuals are not sure if he is telling the truth, but due to his size and stature, they seem to believe him at first. At the end of the day, Lanark has a desire to keep everyone safe, but allows them to have fun and explore the world.

Plot Hooks

1. Adventurers may find Lanark in the middle of a dangerous dungeon, disarming all of the traps.
2. Adventurers may find Lanark in a trap at the center of a dungeon. A villain was frustrated with all the good Lanark was doing.
3. Lanark may request the help of a group of adventurers because he does not know how to disable this strange magic trap he has found.

feature a number of times equal to 1 + his Charisma modifier (4) and regains all expended uses after a long rest.

Gait Difference [IE 1]. Estevot's left leg was severely injured in a battle against a powerful demon, leaving him with a pronounced limp. As a result, his movement speed is reduced by twenty percent, and he has a -1 penalty on all Dexterity (Acrobatics) checks and Strength (Athletics) checks involving legs.

Lay on Hands. Estevot can use his action to touch a creature and restore a number of hit points equal to his paladin level (15). Alternatively, he can expend 5 hit points to cure a target of one disease or neutralize one poison affecting it.

Multiattack. Estevot makes two attacks.

Longsword. Melee Weapon Attack: +10 to hit, reach 5 ft., one target. Hit: 9 (1d8 + 5) slashing damage, or 10 (1d10 + 5) slashing damage if used with two hands.

The damage increases by 1d8 if the target is an undead or fiend.

Bonus Actions

Gentle Touch. As a bonus action, Estevot can choose to make a non-lethal melee weapon attack against a creature. If the attack hits, the creature takes no damage, but instead, Estevot heals the creature for an amount equal to his paladin level (15). This ability can be used a number of times equal to Estevot's Charisma modifier (4) and regains all expended uses after a long rest.
